INTERESTING CEREMONIES.

Programme for Kentucky Day at World's Fair Full of Stirring Events From Early Morn Until Late at Night.

The plans for Kentucky Day, Wednesday, June 15th, at the World's Fair are rapidly maturing. Indications point to this day being one of the greatest in the history of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. There will be cheap rates in effect from all places in the State to St. Louis. Two special trains will run from Louisville, one on the night of June 13th, carrying the Kentucky Press Association, and one on the night of June 14th, made up of the Louisville business men from the Board of Trade, Commercial Club and Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association. This train will have a private car attached with Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, his staff and State officials aboard, together with a committee of three from the Battleship "Kentucky." This business men's excursion is under the immediate supervision of a joint committee, consisting of Messrs. John H. Brand, Baylor Hickman, Chas. F. Huhlein, Theo. Ahrens, Alfred Brandois, Chas. D. Campbell, W. C. T. Cross, Charles B. Norton, Peyton B. Bethel, V. H. Engelhard, E. Weinstock, Wm. Thalheimer, Douglas Barclay, J. E. Moses and Ed Rowland. Both the editors' train and the business men's special will run over the Henderson Route to St. Louis.

The editors, as has been before stated, will spend a day very pleasantly before Kentucky Day sight-seeing. The business men's excursion will run direct to the World's Fair Grounds over the Wabash and will parade, headed by a band, to the Kentucky Building early on the morning of Kentucky Day. Breakfast will be taken at the German Restaurant, adjoining the German Government Pavilion.

The exercises of the day will begin at 11 o'clock at the State Building by the singing of "The Green Kentucky Pastures," a song written by Mrs. Kate Slaughter McKinney, a former Kentuckian, now living at Birmingham, Ala. The music of this song was written by Mr. T. C. Calloway, of Montgomery, who is coming to the Exposition especially to play the accompaniment to this song, which will be sung by Mr. Camden W. Ballard, of Shelbyville, Ky., one of the State's best known tenors. Immediately following this song there will be a presentation of the "home coming colors" of the Battleship "Kentucky," by a committee from this good old ship, to the Governor of the State. There will be addresses by a Kentuckian now in the navy and a Kentuckian now in the army.

The regular exercises for Kentucky Day will be held in Festival Hall and will include a recital on the big pipe organ, the largest ever built. President A. Y. Ford, of the Kentucky Commission, will preside and speeches will be made by President Francis, of the Exposition, a former Kentuckian; by Hon. Harry B. Hawes, of St. Louis, a former Kentuckian, who is the president of the Kentucky Society of St. Louis; by Governor Beckham and others. At night, from 8 to 11 o'clock, there will be a reception at the Kentucky Building, admission by card. As previously stated, no invitations to Kentucky Day will be sent into Kentucky. Every Kentuckian is invited. All events of the day will be made as distinctively "Kentuckian" as possible. Kentucky Building souvenir buttons will be given all visitors and a bunch of blue-grass in the head will be pinned on each visitor. Of course, refreshments will be served both during the day and at the evening reception.

JETT TAKEN TO FRANKFORT.

Enters Upon Life Sentence for the Murder of Marcum and Escapes Gallows.

A dispatch from Louisville, June 4th, says: Curtis Jett was taken to the Frankfort penitentiary at 2 o'clock this afternoon to begin serving his life sentence for the murder of James B. Marcum.

Deputy Sheriff Rees, of Cynthiana, Ky., arrived in Louisville this morning with the necessary papers for the transfer of the noted prisoner to Frankfort.

"I'm glad I'm going," said Jett this morning in the jail. "It has relieved my mind of a great weight since I have known just what was to be my finish, and I have been anxious to have the officers come to take me to Frankfort ever since the move was made in the Court of Appeals which settled my life sentence upon me. I have been daily expecting to be taken to Frankfort, but I did not know when I was going till this morning, when Deputy Sheriff Rees came to the jail and told me."

"We took great care to keep the transfer of Jett a secret from his friends," said Deputy Sheriff Rees. "While we did not particularly fear that any of his friends would attempt to effect his escape en route, yet we thought it wise not to take a chance by letting them know the time and route. I anticipate no trouble with him, as we knew each other well at Cynthiana, and he has promised me that he will go to Frankfort as quietly as he came here to Louisville."

Jett has been confined in the Jefferson county jail ever since the first of last October, when he was brought here for safe keeping. For some time he was a great attraction for curiosity seekers, who called to see him at the jail in great numbers. After a time the novelty of his presence wore away, and barring the time when he again jumped into the public eye through his fierce fight with Chas. Dodson, another convicted murderer, he attracted very little more attention than a dozen or more other prisoners in the jail.

By going to the penitentiary Jett will escape hanging for the Cockrell murder.

About Job Printing.

THE HERALD office has recently added several fonts of new type, embracing the latest styles and is now better than ever prepared to do job printing of all kinds. Merchants and professional men of this section are especially invited to get our prices before placing their orders for letter heads, note heads, envelopes, bill heads, statements, etc. On bill heads and statements we can give better bargains than anybody. Baptist Associations are also invited to get our estimates, as we are better prepared to do this class of work than any office in Eastern Kentucky. We have two first-class stitching machines, and our other facilities are unsurpassed. In this connection it is appropriate, also, to say that with over 40 years experience at the printing business we are in a position to save all of our patrons money. In short, we court comparison and defy competition on any and all kinds of printing, and will appreciate any order, however large or small.

THE HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, June 9, : 1904.

Under announcement headings will be found the name of Samuel Wheeler, of Morgan County, who aspires to the office of State Senator, and we arise to remark that a more worthy gentlemen never asked for place. He is a Democrat from away back and never was called upon that he was afraid to show his colors. While the editor of this paper is an aspirant for the same place he herewith is willing to give way to Mr. Wheeler if the Democrats of the district prefer him, and no one will ever hear him "chaw the rag" about the matter. As an individual Sam Wheeler has been a wheel-horse worker and no single individual ever did more for the party than he. Democrats, in a word, if you think him entitled to the nomination do not hesitate to give it to him and be assured that when you do so Spencer Cooper and The HAZEL GREEN HERALD will do all that is possible to elect him. He is worthy the consideration of every voter in the district and we sincerely ask every voter to weigh well his claims.

When THE HERALD came out for William Randolph Hearst for president it was as sincere in the belief that he would be the Democratic nominee at St. Louis, as it ever was on any subject since it started. We believed all we said of and about him; that he was the savior of the laboring man, a philanthropist from purest principles, etc. And when he showed the white feather by withdrawing from the contest we were as much surprised as if we had guessed the exact attendance at the World's Fair last month and been awarded the $5,000. Now, reviewing the whole of his career for the past year or two, it looks very much as if his charity work and his grand stand plays in behalf of the people were all advertisements for self promotion. And going back a little further it looks like his mother, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, had been playing to the same end, inasmuch as she abandoned the school a few days since which she had been running for 20 years. Mr. Hearst, or his manager, even cut off the daily paper he was sending the writer.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Judge Steve Tutt and wife, at Campton, on Friday morning at 4:30 o'clock, Harry Combs and Miss Sally Tutt. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party, including Misses Anna Belle Combs and Callie Tutt, left for St. Louis to spend two weeks at the World's Fair.

A private letter from Frankfort states that the Italian who was sent up from the Morgan Circuit Court at its January term for rape, died a few days since, and that there is no hope for Stoner Walters, who was sent from the Wolfe Circuit Court for murder. He is in the hospital of the penitentiary.

A telephone message from Campton yesterday morning stated that Mrs. C. C. Funks died that morning while before her death she told her husband and others that she felt much better and would like to spend the day at her father's Judge Tutt, near town.

Humors Come to the Surface

In pimples and other eruptions, but don't run themselves all off that way. They mostly remain in the system—that's bad. Hood's Sarsaparilla removes them, wards off danger makes good health sure. Take it.

Sam Wilson came up Saturday and spent Sunday in Hazel Green, returning to his painting near Maytown on Sunday.

CHARRED REMAINS

Develop a Murder in Breathitt County Instead of Accident.

In the issue of the Hustler of April 8th appeared an article giving the details of the death of young Sam Jones, son of John J. Jones, living near Noble. The article stated that the charred remains of young Jones were found about a mile from his home, and that it was believed to have been the tragic ending of an all night carousal of young Jones, in which three companions were participants also.

There was not then suspicions of foul play, but since the occurrence evidences have come to light pointing unquestionably to the death of Jones by violence.

His father was in Jackson Tuesday, and in the Hustler office stated that the proof of the guilt of the parties under suspicion, whose names are withheld for prudential reasons, is very strong, and that he is now making determined efforts to prosecute the fiends to the very bitter end. The men upon whom will be fixed the responsibility for this deed met Jones on the highway as he was coming to Jackson Tuesday morning, and drawing their pistols defied him to prosecute them. But this attempt at intimidation did not move Jones in the least from his fixed purpose to make them answer for the murder of his son.

Since the coloring of murder has been imparted to the affair through a chain of circumstances revealed since it happened, additional horror is given it, which, under the theory of an accident, was tempered to some extent. As stated in the article in the Hustler disclosing the details, the party on the spree started a camp fire only a short distance from the main highway, and the men lay down to sleep shortly after midnight. The next morning the corpse of Jones, with the clothing entirely burned away and the body almost cremated, lay stark and ghastly in the dim light of the early dawn. The evidence pointing to foul play, as it now turns out to have been, is withheld pending action by the authorities.

"It can be shown," said Mr. Jones, "that my son was murdered, and his body was burned to conceal the deed."

It is one of the most shocking deeds ever perpetrated in a civilized country and the authors should meet swift vengeance from the law.—Jackson Hustler.

Desperate Break for Liberty.

One of the boldest and most desperate attempts to break jail that ever was made in the county's history took place at the county jail in this city, about noon last Sunday. At that hour Dodge Banks, acting as Deputy Jailor, went to take dinner to the prisoners, accompanied by Ben Sewell, son of G. W. Sewell, and who is a mere boy in years. When Banks opened the cell door Robert Chaney, who is in jail in default of bond on a double charge of stealing and murder, thrust a 45 pistol into the faces of the two boys, hurled them aside and dashed out of his cell and down the stairway toward the outer door and liberty. Though taken by surprise and unarmed, young Sewell and Banks displayed rare courage and presence of mind. They pursued Chaney and caught him before he could clear the building and in such a manner that the prisoner could not use his weapon, but could not stop him. Chaney had gotten outside the jail and was making for the gate, with both his antagonists clinging to him and calling for assistance, when George Spencer, a son of Jailor William Spencer, who was visiting his parents at the time, heard the cries for help and ran out and compelled the desperate man to drop his pistol and surrender by placing a loaded weapon to his (Chaney's) head and threatening to kill him if he did not submit. The prisoner dropped his gun and was marched back to his cell, a sadder and wiser, but it is to be doubted if any better man.—Jackson Hustler.

Mr. Brush and wife and a Mr. Burke, of West Liberty, passed through here Sunday enroute to Campton, returning on Monday, when they stopped for dinner at the Day House. Mr. Brush is at present engaged in drilling near West Liberty.

About People You Know.

Miss Ella Kash left Saturday for Hazel Green, where she will spend a few weeks visiting her old home and also attend the commencement exercises at that place.

Miss Evalie Hargis, the popular and attractive daughter of Judge Hargis, has been visiting Miss Daisy Day, of Hazel Green, for the past week and attending the commencement exercises of Hazel Green Academy.

Kelly Kash, a prominent and popular young lawyer of the local bar, returned Monday from Wolfe county, where he had gone to visit his mother, who has been seriously ill for the past month, but whom he reports now as slowly improving.

The examining trial of the six men charged with the killing of Frisby, at Caney two weeks ago, was concluded Saturday. Three of them were released and the other three held in bond of $2,700 each, which they gave. It sometimes seems that one of the easiest things in the world to do is to procure bond under the charge of murder.

During the past week Governor Beckham appointed Judge John E. Cooper Special Judge to try the cases against James Back, B. F. French and Ed Callahan. Judge Cooper then transferred the cases to Montgomery county, which is in Judge Young's district, and they will be tried in that court at the ensuing term. The defendants are satisfied with the change of their cases to Montgomery, where they feel they will face an unbiased judge and jury and be given a fair trial, which is all they and their friends desire and demand.—Jackson Hustler.

W. T. Center, who has been attending the Hospital School of Medicine at Louisville, returned home last week.

Mrs. Polina Handy, widow of Thomas Handy, who is 94 years old and has been very ill for some time, is some better.

H. B. Crawford, late of Camp-ton, passed through here on the 6th inst. enroute to Breathitt, where he expects to do business.

Rev. N. G. Robinson, pastor of Bethel Congregational Church, has been home with his family in Nicholas county, for two weeks.

There will be a Sunday school celebration at Bethel Congregational Church on the second Sunday in July. All are invited to attend.

Steven D. Brown, of this place, is now in the Lexington asylum. This is Steve's fifth time in the asylum, and we fear he never will be himself again.

Richard Byrd, who is a student attending the Hospital School of Medicine at Louisville, visited his mother and sisters at this place on the 4th and 5th inst.

G. H. Fulks, who has been a resident of Whittleton, Ky., has moved back to this place and has reared a dwelling house on the land of S. S. Shackelford, near Bethel Church.

Rev. N. G. Robinson of this place will preach at Lacy Creek on the fourth Sunday in June. Your writer hopes the people will turn out and hear him, for he is a preacher worth hearing.

John B. Gosney, of this place, received a check on the 6th inst. for $5 from the publishers of the St. Louis Star for being one of the successful guessers as to the number of admissions to the World's Fair on the first day.

OLD TIMER.

LEE CITY LOCALS.

Mr. W. M. Jones has taken charge of the restaurant at Lee City and reports business good the past week.

Hon. Z. T. Hurst came to Lee City last Friday to attend the Police Court at this place, but he was one day early. Court does not come until Saturday.

Mr. J. T. Graham and wife Lula Graham, with James Arnett and Mrs. Anderson, all went to Hazel Green to attend the entertainment.

They report a fine time and a very happy trip.

Mr. Ben Murphy the well-known stock buyer was here last week buying stock. He bought a bunch of cattle of A. J. Walter, but we do not know the price he paid for them.

Hon. J. C. Lykins visited the Odd Fellows lodge here last night and delivered a fine address to the I. O. O. F. We were pleased to have him with us and hope he will return soon.

At the school election in District No. 39, E. B. Haddix and E. M. Phipps were the candidates and they could not get any one to run against either one of them, and of course they were both elected.

Mr. A. B. Hanes, while peeling tan bark the other day found a rattle snake that was prepared to make battle with him, but Hanes saw it in time to save himself. He killed it and it was four feet and two inches long.

PENNIE.

She Wants It Bad.

CALLA, KY., June 1.

Mr. Spencer Cooper.

DEAR SIR—Will you please send THE HERALD to me at Calla, Ky. I have been taking THE HERALD for some time and having it sent to Landsaw. I am located at this place and also caused one of your Hazel Green girls to locate at the same place and she says THE HERALD must come here. So please send it to this place and oblige. Your friend,

S. H. KASH.

NATURE'S WAY

NATURE purifies the atmosphere and renders our surroundings habitable by sending the lightning and the rain. We, too, should purify our bodies, if health is to be restored or maintained. When the bowels do not move regularly, your liver is out of order, and you cannot be well. The food lies undigested on the stomach, generating foul gases that poison the blood, and frequently induces chronic ailments and long years of suffering. If troubled with constipation, take PLANTERS NUBIAN TEA—the certain cure for all bowel troubles, biliousness, vertigo, bad breath, coated tongue, sour taste in mouth, insomnia, mental torpor, indigestion, headache, belching up of foul gases, distention of the abdomen, and all other distressing symptoms of Dyspepsia. A pure and healthful vegetable compound—the only remedy that positively cures Constipation and restores every organ of the body to vigorous and healthy action. All druggists sell it, or we send it prepaid, by mail; 25c. a package, 5 packages, $1.00. Sample and booklet free to any address.

Cash Given Away to Users of

LION COFFEE

We are going to be more liberal than ever in 1904 to users of Lion Coffee. Not only will the Lion-Heads, cut from the packages, be good, as heretofore, for the valuable premiums we have always given our customers, but the same Lion-Heads will entitle you to estimates in our $50,000.00 Grand Prize Contests, which will make some of our patrons rich men and women. You can send in as many estimates as desired. There will be

In Addition to the Regular Free Premiums

TWO GREAT CONTESTS

The first contest will be on the July 4th attendance at the St. Louis World's Fair; the second relates to Total Vote For President to be cast Nov. 8, 1904. $20,000.00 will be distributed in each of these contests, making $40,000.00 on the two, and, to make it still more interesting, in addition to this amount, we will give a Grand First Prize of $5,000.00 to the one who is nearest correct on both contests, and thus your estimates have two opportunities of winning a big cash prize.

Five Lion-Heads cut from Lion Coffee Packages and a 2 cent stamp entitle you (in addition to the regular free premiums) to one vote in either contest:

Printed blanks to vote on found in every Lion Coffee Package. The 2 cent stamp covers the expense of our acknowledgment to you that your estimate is recorded.

ONE FULL QUART OF WHISKEY FREE

We know the meaning of words and will do as we say. We claim to be the lowest-priced Whiskey House and the Largest Mail Order Whiskey Concern in the South. All the North Carolina Whiskey we sell is good—there's no bad. People here wouldn't adulterate if they knew how—they are too honest! Most whiskey sellers are noted for mixing, blending and watering. We sell more genuine old whiskey and less water than any known competitor. "Casper's 11 Year Old" Whiskey is a Liquid Joy! It's made by honest people in the mountains of North Carolina, in old-style copper stills, just as it was made by our grandfathers. First-rate whiskey is sold at $5.00 to $6.00 per gallon, but it's not any better than "Casper's 11 Year Old." It must please or we will buy it back. We have a capital of $500,000, and the Peoples' National Bank and the Piedmont Savings Bank of this city will tell you our word is good. To introduce this old, honest whiskey, we offer four Full Quarts of "Casper's 11 Year Old"—two sample bottles, one 15, one 18 year old—a cork-crown and a crimping glass—all for $2.95. If $2.95 is sent we will double the above and put in free One Full Quart Extra. We have some of this whiskey only 7 years old, and will send free a long for $1.00 or will furnish twenty full quart bottles on receipt of $1 and give free cork-crowns, drinking glasses and sample, making this whiskey cost less than $2.50 per gallon delivered. We ship in plain boxes with no marks to indicate contents, and Prepay all Express. Buyers West of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska and Dakota must add 20 cents per quart extra.

10 THE CASPER CO. (INC.) WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

(EDITOR'S NOTE)—Before permitting the above whiskey advertisement to appear in our columns, we investigated the firm through their Bankers. We cheerfully endorse them, and friends in need of pure whiskeys for medical use need not hesitate to order sample lot.
